We are reading a great novel by Roald Dahl called “James and the Giant Peach”.

We are enjoying doing a lot of activities for the book. We made some yummy peaches by using a paper plate and some coloured tissue paper.

We also designed our own cover for the novel, and some posters to advertise coming to view the giant peach.