Loxton’s highly acclaimed and award winning Little Town Productions return in 2015 with their first Christmas production since 2009. Once again audiences will be captivated by the story of the nativity as told through the eyes of people who were there, allowing them to experience all of the humour, emotion and majesty of an event which ultimately changed the world.

Tabitha is the owner of the Bethlehem Inn, and has a deep curiosity and interest in everyone she meets, and sets out to discover their stories and how their lives have been shaped. She knows the heavily pregnant young lady and her husband without a room must have a story, but with only a dirty stable to offer and after having just travelled the long road from Nazareth – now probably wasn’t the time to ask.

Simon the shepherd wishes he had a story. He has been waiting all his life for the prophecy of the Promised Messiah to be fulfilled – and has nearly given up hope. His fellow shepherds are so preoccupied with life, love and ……sheep, that they are quite oblivious to the significance David’s town has as foretold by the writings of ancient past.

And then, they had the encounter, and life for everyone would never be the same…

The Encounter will be performed ten times over the two weekends leading up to Christmas, in St. Peter’s Lutheran Church, Loxton, with the Singing Christmas Tree, the Bethlehem Bakehouse and the Little Town Choir all adding to the Little Town experience.

Each person has their own story.
All will experience their own encounter.
